PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

KELLINGLEY INCINERATOR

The proposed Incinerator on the Kellingley colliery site is back at North Yorkshire County Council's planning department.

It is a section 73 planning application, for what they call "MINOR CHANGES" to the application.

Those minor changes include;

Increasing the amount of waste to be burnt annually, from 280,000 tonnes, to 350,000 tonnes.

Increasing the number of HGV movements per day, during construction, from 200 (that's 100 in and 100 out) to 360 movements per day (160 in and 160 out)

Increasing the number of HGV movements, once the plant is operational, from 60 (30 in and 30 out) to 88 per day (44 in and 44 out)

ALL of these HGVs will be coming off the M62 and going through Eggborough and along the A645 to get to and from the site.

You can see the details of the application by searching "North Yorkshire County Council planning application" then click on "Access the online planning register" and then use the planning reference number NY/2019/0005/73

You can have your say by emailing; planning.control@northyorks.gov.uk

Or by writing to; Planning Services, County Hall, Northallerton, North Yorkshire DL7 8AH

Please quote the planning reference number NY/2019/0005/73 in all correspondence.

People, Pictures, Maps and Memories

The History of Kellington and its Residents

A history Facebook page, “Kellington Past and Present” was recently set up. The page already has some fascinating photos and memories on it.

Your April coffee morning at the Village Hall will focus on “Kellington Past and Present” (a couple of computers will allow you to look at the page).

The firm of S.H. Baker, Kellington, hired out and repaired agricultural machinery. This photograph shows Samuel Henry Baker driving a car.

Please come along, bring your old photographs, newspaper cuttings and memories.

The raffle will be in aid of Age Concern
