Update on changes to your local councils

The Government have decided that there will be a one-council system for the entire county of North Yorkshire. That the six District Councils, including Selby District Council. will be abolished and that ALL services will, from April 2023, be run from Northallerton.

Elections for new Councillors will take place on Monday 5th May 2022. The newly elected Councillors will be on the current North Yorkshire County Council until April 1st 2023 when the new all powerful North Yorkshire Council will take over.

There are currently 41 councillors (Selby District and North Yorkshire) covering the Selby District, that will reduce to between 9 and 12 in 2023.

There will be no local referendum or any other vote on this issue. The decision has been made by central Government

The Parish Councils will not be affected by these changes.
